

Important Information

- 1- A new beneficiary designation terminates any previous designation, but does not affect any existing contingent beneficiary designations.
- 2- a) If the designated beneficiary is deceased and there is no contingent beneficiary, the policyowner's estate becomes the beneficiary.
 b) If the irrevocable beneficiary is deceased, attach an original death certificate.
 c) The designation of "estate" applies to the policyowner's heirs and not those of the insured.

For the province of Quebec:

The designation of your spouse (married or civil union spouse) as beneficiary is automatically irrevocable, unless you stipulate otherwise. The designation of any other person as beneficiary is revocable, unless you stipulate otherwise.

For all other Canadian provinces and territories:

The beneficiary designation is automatically revocable, unless you stipulate otherwise.

Revocable:

means that the beneficiary designation can be changed without the beneficiary's written consent.

Irrevocable:

means that the beneficiary designation cannot be changed without the beneficiary's written consent. The irrevocable designation of a minor cannot be changed until they reach the age of majority.

C - Consent related to the management of your personal information by Desjardins Group

 This consent applies to each policyowner (Individual).

1. Management of your personal information

To serve you on a daily basis and meet our legal obligations, we need to collect, use and disclose information about you. For more details, see Desjardins Group's Privacy Policy at www.desjardins.com/privacy-policy.

You may be asked for specific consent to ensure that Desjardins Insurance can deliver or continue to deliver service. This will be done in compliance with Desjardins Group's Privacy Policy.

Desjardins Insurance handles all your personal information confidentially. Your information will be accessed only by employees who require it to complete their tasks.

2. Your rights

You can:

- See the personal information Desjardins Group has about you
- Correct any information that's incomplete, ambiguous or not relevant

To find out how, see Desjardins Group's Privacy Policy.

3. Collection or transfer of your personal information outside of Canada

Desjardins Insurance uses service providers located outside of Canada to perform certain specific activities in its normal course of business. As such, personal information may be collected in and/or transferred to another country and be subject to the laws of that country.

For information about our policies and practices regarding the collection and transfer of personal information outside of Canada, see Desjardins Group's Privacy Policy. You can also obtain this information, or ask any questions you might have, by calling us at 1-800-278-0669.

By signing section D - Statements and signatures (page 5), you:

- Acknowledge that you've looked at Desjardins Group's Privacy Policy, which is available at www.desjardins.com/privacy-policy
- Authorize Desjardins Group to collect, use and disclose your personal information based on the conditions outlined in the policy and applicable regulations
- Acknowledge and accept that this consent takes precedence over any other consent you've previously signed
- Acknowledge that this consent remains valid for as long as you have a business relationship with a Desjardins Group component
